“ The goodness and light shifted on the world on October the 11th. One of God's angels left her earthy vessel to walk once again with her beloved, Her struggles are over and her mind is clear. Her heart is full of joy as she walks among God's other angels now. I shared meals at her home and she bestowed her secrets of Christmas punch and pan fried apples to me. Her meekness and kindness was a comfort to me. I always found her way with children heart-warming and the way she loved her children, her grand children always shown upon her face. I thought her dark hair and eyes made her a beautiful woman, but her heart made her the angel we all knew her to be. Mrs. Cannon will be missed by all who knew her. I am glad to have been one of the people to be touched by her goodness.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers,

“ Irene kept me as a little girl. I loved going to her house. I have so many wonderful memories there. I remember I would cry everyday when I had to leave to go home. I was very fortunate that she was also able to keep my son as a baby until he was in kindergarten. She was a wonderful person. I am really going to miss her but I know she is in a better place. I love you, Mama Irene!

“ I know Heaven is rejoicing in receiving a precious Christmas woman! Mrs. Cannon was quiet and sweet, caring and always there if you needed her. I know she loved her family dearly and served her God. God bless the family and friends. I am thankful I knew her.
