“ I got to know Miss Nodine over the years. I enjoyed when she would come out to porch and talk. She did have a good laugh She loved her yard sells. And she spoke often about her Son Jackie and daughter Chrystal. She had became a good friend to me and my mother. She’s dancing in Heaven now. My condolences to Chrystal and family. She will be missed

“Marilyn you have my sympathy during this difficult time. The mention of Southern Worsted Mill in Irish's obituary brought back so many memories of years gone by! I know you remember them too. Some say the good old days and in some ways I would have to agree. I'll be remembering all of you in the days ahead. Love and sympathy!

“My Aunt Irish was a sweet, loving and Godly woman who always had a smile on her face. She also had this sweet little laugh that was so contagious. We will forever miss and love her until we meet again. We love you Aunt Irish.
