“ We met Jack at Leslie and Peter's wedding. He was very kind and wonderful to us and took the time to introduce himself to us and spent time getting to know us. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all his family and friends for their loss.

“ Jack was a very likeable guy and a wonderful friend. He would go out of his way to make people feel comfortable and welcome. In the 30 plus years we knew him, he created a niche in our lives sharing joys and sorrows.

Before he moved to South Carolina, six of us would get together to enjoy each others company. We kept in close contact and regarded Jack as a great friend. He will be truly missed by us. Our condolences to his family and his friend, Sandy.

“ We knew Jack when he and his wife Sandy lived in a rural home in NJ. Pat had met them while working at AT&T, and they quickly absorbed wife Mary when we met. Their retired life involved a lot of antiques and "sale-ing". We have wonderful memories of their hospitality, which was with them whether at their home or guests at ours or other friends. Jack was very thoughtful of everyone and enjoyed our children. We will truly miss one of the nicest guys you will ever meet.
