“ *Uncle Jack was 93,
He was as happy as he could be.*

*Jack could spin a rhyme with the best of them,
Here's some verses just for him.*

*Basketball, football--he enjoyed them all
If the Clemson Tigers had the ball.*

*Good food brought a sparkle to Jack's eye,
Especially Aunt Deane's homemade peach pie!*

*Beautiful Faye was the love of his life,
He was devoted to his wife.*

*There's no place Jack would rather be
Than surrounded by friends and family.*

*No one will ever take his place,
We miss his loving ways and smiling face.*
