“ I am so sorry for the loss of Mr. A. I have so many memories of the short time that I was his care giver. He was always smiling and never complained. It was a pleasure to sit with him. We loved watching the birds outside the window together. He gained his wings and is not in pain anymore. I have not had a day that he has not been on my mind. I have missed him so much since I moved away. Prayers for the family.
