“ Just want you all to know we are praying for you. I will always remember James with his dimples and that mischievous smile. He was always willing to help anyone in need. I have to tell you Jud and Sheila that he learned it from you two. We had called him once when our truck was stuck and he couldn't come but he said just call my Dad he loves doing stuff like that. We did and Jud and Jim came to our rescue. I love the fact that James was so proud of his parents and family nad the example they set. He learned so much from you all. I will pray for all continually and know that when I see any of you or his wonderful fun loving/hard working friends, I am seeing James in each of you. Love to you all. Cindy Duncan

“ My words are not adequate to express the sorrow I feel for your loss,. James was a pleasure to work with. I will truly miss our conversations about hunting, cars and motorcycles. Losing someone as young and energetic as James is tragic. We will keep his spirit alive at D & W.

“ I can only hope that I can learn to live, love, laugh and smile just as James did. The few times I have been around him, he was always living life to the fullest and had a smile from ear to ear. I am keeping all of James' family, friends and other loved ones in my prayers. James is certainly loved and missed.
