“ Melvin was a great friend. We attended church with him. We shared many conversations about how we grew up and what God had done in our lives. We will miss his friendship and will see him again.

Melvin and I grew and played together in good old Royston Ga, in fact, I married his beautiful sister Maryann of 65 years now. I knew Melvin as a fun-loving family man and a friend. He will be missed by all that knew and loved him.

I will always remember his beautiful laughter , sense of humor and his smile ! When he walked in to grannies in Royston Ga he made us smile , and brought so much laughter and love to our family! When we moved to Okinawa he took and raised our beautiful shepherd Duke ! I will always cherish him as my favorite uncle ! Love to my cousins you were blessed to have such a strong and loving family! He will be missed and I know he is with his beautiful wife that he missed so much ! What a love story they had ! Love you all
