“ To my family and Kenneth's friends and co workers I would like to say that today's service was one of the most moving and memorable memorials that I have ever attended. Kenneth was loved by so many people and made an impact on so many lives. It was nice to hear the stories and memories of him, he was such a fun person to be around. He never missed an opening to make a comment that would drop you to your knees laughing. Even in the end he kept us laughing. It was a mighty tribute today to a man that was well loved and I feel blessed to have been attending the service. God Bless you all

“ To my loving brother and my best friend. I am going to miss my bestest buddy so much, but I am so thankful for the time we had and the memories I will be able to cherish. I took life for granted and just always thought we would grow old together. I always pictured You, Robin, Me and Clint sitting on the back deck rocking our old bodies in some old rocking chairs looking out on the lake. When you were diagnosed 2 years go and only giving 6 months, we all prayed for more time. God gave us 2 more wonderful years and I am so grateful for that time. You are one of the strongest and most humble men I have ever known and you are my Hero. I know my "Angel Bug" is watching over me, so wrap your arms around me when my tears begin to fall and there will be many. There will be happy tears and some sad tears, because I am going to miss you so much. I kept the bear I gave to you right after you were diagnosed for you to hug, but now you have Jesus hugging you and so I will be the one hugging the bear now every time I need a hug from you until I join you in heaven. I miss you so much already and I love you with every breath I take. Your Loving Sister Forever

“ My heart breaks, So sorry to hear about Kenny. It is so true, he was one of the good guys. As the Family heart breaks, I know the Angels are rejoicin. The Heavenly Father called him home, for rest. and no more pain. I know Jesus will send his Angels to spread their wings and embrace this family for the months to come. You all will be in my prayers.

“ I am so very deeply sorry for your loss. Ken was always a good friend and a truly honorable man. I will miss his friendship, laughter, advice and honesty. He spoke often about his family and helped us be more thankful for our own. The world has lost one of the good guys. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
