“ Phil photographed my daughters wedding, my mothers 90th birthday celebration and my granddaughter's portrait. He was a master photographer and a very warm and humble man. He will truly be missed. My deepest sympathy to the family.

“ To the Hyman family,
I am saddened to hear of Phil's passing. I have so many fond memories at your house, one Halloween in particular. I can hear and see Ann and Phil laughing and going on with us. From Greer High cotillion pictures to Christmas balls, junior senior pictures, to my wedding and even children's pictures, you captured my photos but more than that, we captured a special friendship full of precious memories. The table turned when I was able to help him with his glasses but he still made me feel like a young girl. May you feel Gods grace, mercy and love during this difficult time.
