“ Henry was a friend everyone wish they had. Integrity, compassion, sincerity; if there was ever someone you could count on or turn to it was Henry. I met Henry 20 yrs. ago and instantly new he was of great character, great husband and great father. My condolences to his family and all who knew him. He made a huge impact on my life. I know he missed his Mildred greatly and was anticipating the day they could be reunited. Congratulations, buddy, you made it. We will miss you, but you deserve your reward.
Your friend, Dan

“ God needed a mandolin player to complete ‘The Julian Family’ band and He chose a great one. My heart is broken, as is yours, Phil, Janice, Mickey and family, but we can rest in the knowledge that the circle is now complete and angels rejoice. I will miss you uncle Henry. You were a beacon to many.

“ Sorry to hear about my friend Henry. Every time we would meet up, he was always upbeat, glad to talk about music and instruments he had, or asking me about the ones I had. Janice, Micky and JT, so sorry for your loss.
