

James A. Kiser

February 3, 1957 - March 12, 2017

James Alexander Kiser, 60, passed away at Greenville Memorial Hospital on March 13, 2017 due to complications following an anoxic brain injury.

James was born on February 3, 1957 in Duncan, SC to the late Grover & Tillyie Kiser. He married in 1980 and two children were born of the union.

James moved to Marietta, SC and worked as a tree surgeon. He retired due to health and was committed to enjoying every remaining moment of his life.

Mr. Kiser was an avid outdoorsman and had a passion for nature and wildlife. He loved to fish from the bank of any river and felt at home in the woods.

James is remembered as one who was always willing to lend a helping hand and will be missed by many.

Mr. Kiser is survived by his son Cody Kiser; his daughter, Christy Lowe; two brothers; three sisters; and seven grandchildren; Matthew, Kalem, Nakylee, Nickali, Brooklyn, Shelby, and McKenzie.

Visitation will be held Thursday, March 23, 2017 from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at The Wood Mortuary in Greer. Mr. Kiser will have a private burial at the family cemetery.

“ We were never all that close but I was always learning from him, nonetheless. I know how to hunt, fish, camp, and make the most of the resources around us. I'm also headstrong, determined, and care deeply but can be mean. It's ironic how much I'm like him. I wish he had a chance to know. Praying He is with the Lord 🙏
