“ Mr. Leonard was always a quiet, good man. He and his wife would stop on the way to the beach to visit Iris. He would always walk over and check out my garden when I had one. He was a wonderful gardener and knew how to grow most anything and when to plant it. He kept a full size garden until he moved out of his home. That sure was amazing to me. He was full of kindness and love especially for both his daughters and their families. He gave them a lifetime of love but they will hold him in their hearts for the rest of their lives.
