

James Albert "Mac" Maxwell Jr.

September 4, 1948 - December 14, 2023

James Albert "Mac" Maxwell, Jr., 75, of Simpsonville, South Carolina, son of the late James Albert Maxwell, Sr. and Dorothy Fowler Maxwell, passed away December 14, 2023.

James is survived by his wife, Vickie Hart Maxwell of the home; sons, Clark (Carrie) Maxwell and Jake (Anna) Maxwell; two grandchildren, Luke and Sarah Maxwell; grand dogs, Molly and Chubs and Charlotte; and one grand cat, Lucky. He also has another grandchild on the way!

James was a generous man, wonderful husband, father, grandfather, brother-in-law, and uncle. There is nothing he loved more than helping his boys and grandkids. They were truly the apple of his eye, and nothing ever made him beam more than talking to or about them. He was so proud of them and their accomplishments. He LOVED all sports, but mainly Clemson football and NASCAR racing.

"Mac" was a veteran of the US Army Reserves and worked almost 50 years for AT&T and loved his work and the guys he worked with. His family knew every pole, every splice he made and who he was with, or manhole he went in across Greenville County. He was a faithful employee and had a tremendous work ethic. That trait he passed down to his boys. He was so proud of that. Like him, they were at work way before start time, and gave 110% no matter what. His favorite saying was "if you on time, you're late!"

James was a Christian and a faithful member of Cross Roads Baptist Church his whole life. He faithfully served as church treasurer for about 45 years. He dearly loved the members of the Stewardship Sunday School Class and enjoyed attending the "HUH" coffee club of gentlemen at McDonalds on Fridays. If he could pass along anything to you, he would tell you to be sure your relationship with the Lord was right.

His family would like to thank the staff and doctors at Bon Secours Hospital Downtown for their loving care for him.

Services will be held 2:00 p.m. Monday, December 18, 2023, at Cross Roads Baptist Church Worship Center. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Honorary escort will be the Stewardship Sunday School Class.

Visitation will be held 12:30 until 1:45 p.m. Monday at the church prior to the service.

The family is at the home.

In lieu of flowers, the family ask that a donation be made to Cross Roads Baptist Church Building Fund, 705 Anderson Ridge Road, Greer, SC 29651.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

“ Dear Vickie, Clark, Jake, and all the extended family of James, Our deepest and most sincere condolences to you all in the loss of a very special man. I always looked up to James as a young teen as he set a great example even as an 'older teen' (about 16 at the time). As long as I've known him, James was one of the finest, honest, charitable, Christian men I ever knew and a great family man! As difficult as his loss may be, we must take comfort in the fact that his spirit is in the presence of Jesus Christ right now! May God in His mercy grant peace and comfort to you all at this time and always.

*In Christian love,

“ I was just telling my daughter about Mac over Thanksgiving with my dad (Johnny Scurry). About what a great guy he was and also about your famous pickle sandwiches, Vickie. Still my favorite. So sad to hear of his passing. Thinking of you all. Still can so clearly see him walking towards me and dad at the high school. Seems like yesterday. He was a good one.

“ Vickie, Clark, Jake and families,
We are so sorry for your loss. Mac was a great friend to our family. We have so many great memories of our times at Clemson football games and Mauldin High School. Johnny still makes the “pickle sandwiches” that Mac would bring to tailgating, that we’re sure Vickie made. Every time we have those we think of y’all. Mac was always a great volunteer supporting his kids and the Mauldin community. We have let everyone know about Mac’s passing because everyone loved Mac!!

Kathy, Johnny, Rusty and Laurie Scurry (Inabinett).
