

James Wilson Roe

February 4, 1949 - August 1, 2013

Heading: James W. Roe

Dateline: Greer

James Wilson Roe, went to be with the Lord surrounded by his loving family, after a long hard battle.

A native of Greenville County, son of Mary Breazeale of Landrum, and the late Wilson Roe, he graduated from Blue Ridge High School and Erskine College with a degree in Business Administration. His favorite pastimes included playing his fiddle and mandolin in bluegrass bands and working on his project cars. Mr. Roe worked at Honeywell and was a member of Mountain View United Methodist Church where he served as treasurer and lay leader for many years.

Surviving in addition to his mother is his wife, Debbie Wright Roe of the home; one daughter, Sara Jane Roe of Greenville; one brother, Eugene B. Roe and his wife Bonnie of Taylors; a niece; a nephew and many cousins.

Mr. Roe was predeceased by one sister, Ann Roe Reid.

Funeral services will be held 4:00 p.m. Sunday at Mountain View United Methodist Church conducted by Rev. Molly Wilkes, Rev. Kenneth Land and Rev. Nelson Stokes. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Visitation will be held 2:30-3:45 p.m. Sunday at Mountain View United Methodist Church.

The family is at the home.

Memorials may be made to Mountain View United Methodist Church Building

Fund, 6525 Mountain View Road, Taylors, S.C. 29687 or charity of one's choice.
