“ Buck Sudduth was a remarkable man. Devoted to his family, devoted to his church, and devoted to the land. My father, Maurice Talley, considered Buck to be one of his closest friends. Our entire family, (Doris Talley, Susan Talley Vermillion, Don Talley) treasures the memories of good times spent with Buck. Our hearts go out to Margie, Pam, and all of the friends and family of Buck Sudduth.

“ *Margie,
Just can't imagine what you are going through. You have had so many years together and the love and good times you have shared together. Please except our sympathy and know we love and appreciated you and him both. What a wonderful friendship we have shared over the years and oh how we wonder where the time goes. My God wrap His arms around you and comfort you during this this time and the many sad days to follow. You will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers.

Mrs. Suddeth and family, I was saddened to read of Mr. Suddeth's passing. Although I don't think I ever met him, I felt like I knew him through our Liberty Life days.

I am sorry I am not physically able to attend the service, but I wanted you to know of my thoughts and prayers.
