When we think of Jim Swink, we remember his bright smile and warm disposition. He really loved his family. Louann, Tammy, and Doug were friends of ours at Rusty Brook Swimming Pool. We shared many happy days there. May God bless all of you. Love, Chris and Gerri Trabookis

“ Jim was always the life of the party. I had the pleasure of growing up across the street from the Swinks on Lorena Drive in Taylors. Some of our families best stories have Jim imbeaded in the story line. I glad Jim was able to make it to my wedding a few years back as his son Doug was my best man. We may be crying with grief down here on earth, but rest assured everyone up in heaven are laughing their butts off. He was a funny guy! I loved him very much and we are praying for the Swinks in this difficult time.
