“ I first met Jimmy in Phu Bai, Vietnam. We continued our friendship stateside at Arlington Hall Station in Virginia. I will not speak to all of the good and bad things we did together. We had many a good laugh retelling and reliving those army experiences. After we were discharged, he went home to South Carolina and I went home to New York. We had the privilege of reconnecting in person at our yearly Vietnam Reunions in Myrtle Beach. We enjoyed great food, and especially our ice cream, but mostly spending a week with each other. Jimmy was such a fun and great friend, and I will miss him terribly.

“ Dear Francis, Maggie, Kathy, and the rest of the family, I'm so very sorry for your loss. Jim was a terrific man who loved his family without a doubt. All of his grandchildren had a special place in his heart. I pray God blesses you with love, peace and comfort. Hold on to the love, memories, even your ups and downs, that way he is always with you. Jim will always be in your heart and on your mind. The love you all shared will continue to grow day by day. Love you all and will continue to pray for you.
