“ Polly,
I know you will miss him as we all will miss him.
He was a good man ,husband and Father, and friend.
You have my deepest sympathy.
As you may not remember my father Jack died on October 13, 1979.

“ Sorry about your loss of JB. He always had a friendly smile and took time to stop and talk. We especially remember both of you in the morning service as we usually sit near both of you. These are good memories for us and we will remember him in our prayers. We are out of town today so we will miss the services. Love you!
