“ I was so sad to hear of Hal's passing. I worked with him for many years at Transitions. He always kept us laughing. Every day he would have a new joke for us. He even taught us how to dance. I will miss him very much. Everyone at Transitions really liked him.

“ I was reared in Langdale and although younger than Harold knew him and Alton and Jerrene along with their Mother and Dad. We were in the same church and I worked with his Dad, Mr. Gordon, at Langdale Mill.

I was sorry to learn of Harold's death and offer the family my condolences during this time of grief.###imported-begin###RICHELIE TERRY###imported-end##
