

James Henry Brockman

September 8, 1916 - February 6, 2007

Name: James H. Brockman

Dateline: Reidville

James Henry Brockman, 90, of 292 Sharon Church Rd., died February 6, 2007 after a long illness.

He was married to Ruth Pearson Brockman, his loving wife of 68 years who preceded him in death on January 9, 2004. He was a son of the late Henry Frank and Mamie Snow Brockman and was born on September 8, 1916 in Spartanburg County, Reidville Community of which he was a lifelong resident. He is survived by his sister, Evelyn Brockman Davis and husband Vernon, son Thomas A. Brockman and wife Diana, of Yorktown, VA., grandchildren, Ian T. Brockman and wife, Michelle, of Simpsonville and Courtney Johnston and husband, Eric, of Centreville, VA.

He retired from the engraving department of M. Lowenstein and Son, Lyman, SC. During his life he was very active in Sharon United Methodist Church where he sang in the choir, was on many committees, and held various offices. He drove for meals on wheels for many years.

He was respected by all who knew him an honest man and hard worker.

He was a faithful husband whose priority in life above all else was family and church. He loved farming and was knowledgeable in the art of gardening and turned the soil of his garden until he physically was no longer able to do so.

Many of the terraces in the local area were fashioned by the implements of his tractor. He was good at saving and investing money, he was kind and giving to his family.

Grandson, Ian, and great nephew, Brock, were at his side when he left this world to be with his Creator at 10:35 p.m.

Visitation will be at The Wood Mortuary on Sunday, February 11, 2007 from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Graveside service will be at Sharon United Methodist Church Cemetery on Monday, February 12, 2007 at 1 p.m.

Family will receive friends at the home 292 Sharon Church Road, following the service.

Memorials may be made to Sharon United Methodist Church,
P.O. Box 418, Reidville, SC 29375.
