

Jamie McMakin

March 12, 1991 - February 19, 2012

James Michael (Jamie) McMakin, 20, of 61 Lawrence Street, died February 19, 2012 at his home.

A native of Greenville County, he was a 2011 graduate of James F. Byrnes High School, where he was a Teacher Cadet in 2011, a Nixon Nut, and voted Outstanding Teen in 2010. Jamie was an avid fisherman and loved football and basketball. He attended Duncan First Baptist Church.

Surviving are his father, James West of the home; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur West of Wellford; uncle and aunt, Jerry and Stephanie West of Wellford; niece and nephew, Kinley and Nash West; grandfather, Johnny McMakin of Taylors; sister, Heather McMakin of Easley; special friends, Tyler Jones, Ty Henderson and Chase Atkins.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 p.m. Saturday at Duncan First Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Lamar McAbee and Rev. Mitch Crow.

Visitation will be held 12:30-1:30 p.m. Saturday at the church.

The families are at their respective homes.

A special thank you to the Acorn, Rill and Satterfield families for their loving care.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Jamie McMakin Memorial Fund, c/o Duncan First Baptist Church, 103 E. Main Street, Duncan, SC 29334.

“ I offer my sincere condolences to James and the entire family. I will never forget how truly touched i was when Jamie came to see me my last night at Bilo and wish me well, even though we no longer worked together. Thoughtfulness like that is rare and shows what a caring and special young man he was. His passing is such a loss but i hope you find comfort, as i do, in knowing that one day you will be reunited. God Bless.###imported-begin###Jill Queen###imported-end##
