“ Our hearts are heavy with the loss of a good family friend and coworker. We have fond memories of Jamie as one of Chris's first baseball coaches, pulling his first tooth with a string, and driving the kids around in his armored personnel carrier. He was truly bigger than life. Always a smile, a kind word, and a wonderful asset to AMEC. Our hearts and prayers go out to you Suzanne, Lindsay, and Maxie.

“ I knew Jamie, Susan, Maxine and big Jim when they lived in Green Pines subdivision near Daniel High. Sue, I remember helping you and Jim when Maxine was dying. I met your and Maxine's Mom then. My heart is so heavy that so many members of this fine family died of cancer. I wish I could see you but I find myself now with health problems. You, Sue, and Jamie's fine wife and children(who I did not know) and Susan's husband and children are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Tippy Welborn Cope##imported-end##

“ I worked with Jamie at Amec although not directly. There were many times we would talk about cars together as my first car was an Olds 442 when I was 19 years old. I recently sold my 2010 SS Camaro, but would always see Jamie's Challenger out in the parking lot. My deepest sympathy to your family at this tragic time of sorrow. He was a great guy.##imported-begin##Gregory Ashe##imported-end##

“ Jamie, I definitely remember the days when we were all young engineers and got to work together at Sirrinc. Not only did I have the pleasure of knowing you and your family but I got to do a project with your wonderful father "Big Daddy" Neal. I feel blessed to have gotten to know one of the best husbands, and father a family could have. We never know how long we have here on earth....you made a difference in the many lives that crossed your path...we can all hope that we have the same impact when our time comes to leave. God Bless You Brother...##imported-begin##Lee Reid##imported-end##

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Jamie for about 20 years with AMEC and Serrine. Always a smile and an out-stretched hand when you see him. I spent most of my time in the field, but I always knew I could call him up for an answer and no matter how busy he was, he would have time for me. My heart is heavy, and the world is more empty without this big guy. I will miss my Friend. May God take care of this gentle person.
