“ Jan and my mom have been friends for over 25 years. Jan was a wonderful caring woman who family and friends meant the most to her. As of late I had the opportunity to get to know her better. She truly was a jewel. She will be missed, especially by this family.

“ I met Jan Williams many years ago when I dated both her sons Devery and Dale. She was so sweet to me back then even after I my relationships with Devery and Dale ended. I want to express my deepest sympathies to the entire Kelly family for their loss. Will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,
