“ Both Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes were always the kindest of people to me. Being a close friend of their son's I would see them at their home and at the Clemson football games from time to time. Often they would share any extra tickets they happened to have with me at no cost. And they always welcomed me at their tailgates with hospitality, food and great stories. I'm glad they were able to see Clemson win another National Championship before they passed. And that's how I will always remember them - with a kind word, bountiful hospital and a plate a food if I ever needed it. They will be missed by me and many others.
