“ Janelle was a sweet friend. We met her as she was on her porch one day and we started up a conversation. My kids and I used to take her to appointments and to the grocery store. The kids would fight to be the one to get her Mail and take it to her, or to mow her yard. We'd knock on her door when we could just to say hello. She was always nice to us. We were very sad to hear she had gotten hurt and are sorry we won't be able to spend time with her any longer. She will be missed.
