“ Jeff and I have many fond memories of Janet and Ben. We were fortunate enough to be included in family get together's whenever they came to visit Crystal and family in Sterling. At that time, Crystal lived 2 doors down and they would all come up to have happy hour on our deck. Also, Janet loved to visit my flower gardens. Crystal is considered my “older” sister, so Janet really had 5 daughters. One of our most cherished and favorite memories of Janet and Ben involve a clock – yes a clock. During one of their visits they showed us this clock and it started this battle to “steal” this clock from them. We loved it so much that we swore we would drive to South Carolina and steal it. For years we would go back and forth about this clock and even banter about it in our Christmas cards to each other. It was our thing, reason being the clock said “It’s 5 o’Clock Somewhere” and we so agreed.

We love you Janet so very much and we will miss you with all our hearts. God Bless, JaM Westerman
