Heading: Jean Boling

Dateline: Decatur, Georgia

Norma Jean Bridwell Boling, of 341 Winn Way, Decatur, Georgia, would have celebrated her 72nd birthday on January 18. Widow of William (Bill) Boling, Jean passed away December 29, 2007 at Dekalb Medical Center following a severe case of pneumonia. A native of Spartanburg County, township of Fairmont, she was the daughter of the late D.W. and Beulah Wood Bridwell. She was predeceased by her brother, Marvin W. Bridwell. Surviving are a daughter, Rita B. MacCallon and her son Sean of Tucker, Georgia; a son, Michael Boling, his wife Susan and her daughter Ashleigh of Satellite Beach, Florida; a sister, Joyce Dobbins Cooper and her husband Jack of Hinton, West Virginia; sister-in-law Eleanor Bridwell and her children, Chuck and Marsha.

Jean was raised in Fairmont where her father and mother operated Bridwell's Grocery. She married and became an Air Force wife and mother traveling with her husband and family to several different states and Germany. Jean and Bill retired back in Fairmont and Jean became an employee of Carolina Cash in Spartanburg before she and her husband became campground hosts in the Pisgah Forest where they served for 6 years. In 1999 Jean and Bill moved to Satellite Beach, Florida to be near son Michael and friends. Following Bill's death in 2003, Jean moved to Decatur, Georgia where she lived at the Regency House in Decatur. She enjoyed life fully with friends, her daughter and grandson until her soul took flight early Saturday morning.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 a.m. Tuesday at the Wood Mortuary, conducted by Rev. Homer Smith. Burial will follow in Wood Memorial Park. Visitation will be held 6:00-8:00 p.m. Monday at the Wood Mortuary. Memorials may be made to the American Lung Association. Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.
