

Jean Moore Kent

December 18, 1941 - May 2, 2025

Jean Sharon Moore Kent, 83, passed away May 2, 2025.

A native of Greenville, South Carolina; daughter of the late Rudolph and Hazel Heath Moore; she was a graduate of Wade Hampton High School Class of 1959; former U.S. Navy Reservist, and of the Baptist faith. She also served for several years as a nurse at Greer High School.

Surviving are a son, Randy Scott Lowery (Lori); a sister, Cassandra White; a brother, Ronald Wade Moore; and a sister, Sylvia Turner (Curtis).

A private inurnment will be held at a later date.

The family will be at their respective homes.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Tribute Wall

LS

“ It has been so good getting together in our later years. She had the most beautiful voice and was always willing to share a song. She came to Piedmont Park Baptist Church when we were going into the 5th grade and her 1st visit to our SS class we asked her to sing and she sung “Standing On the Promises of God”. I’ll always miss her, she was so kind.

Linda Head Staton - May 09, 2025 at 02:29 PM

SF

“ We were neighbors with the Moore family growing up in our little neighborhood so many years ago. I remember when Randy and Cassandra were little, and I would babysit for them, when their Mother was in nursing school. We send our condolences in the loss of your Mother. I can still see her laughing and smiling when I visited with her a few years ago, and that is how I will always remember her. May she rest in eternal peace and may her memory be eternal to each of you. Sharon and Jean Frazier

John 14:1-3

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

Sharon Frazier - May 07, 2025 at 01:47 PM

AA

“ Scott, Cassandra, and your family, I am saddened to hear of your mother's passing. I have so many great memories with her and your family. One that I love is sharing lunch in the health room with her at Greer High. I would go in and use her “official health room phone” for “only” health room emergencies, and call my papa to see what he and my nanny were having for lunch and he would fix me and Jean a container of homemade soup, a plate of home-cooked vegetables like okra, green beans, black-eyed peas, sweetcorn, turnip greens, sliced tomatoes with blackberry /strawberry /peach/apple cobbler, and always fresh cornbread. She would write me a hall pass to go to the office to get our goodies, all packed with love and everything we needed to eat. These times were special not only for her and me but also for my nanny and papa because they loved bringing us this treat and doing something for others. This is just one of the many times I have to share but there are so many more since I had the privilege to be your friend and be able to come into your home and share special and wonderful times with all of you. May you be comforted by knowing that others care and love you during this time of difficulty. May you feel God's peace, love, and mercy in the days ahead.

My deepest condolences and in peace and love to you my dear friends.

Love, Angie AshmoreKruse

Angie AshmoreKruse - May 02, 2025 at 06:56 PM