“ The day we told her I was pregnant with my son Kaydan, boy did she light up. She took me in from day one as her own. When I had my son, she was there, she come in the room with the biggest smile. She held kaydan and was tickled pink over his red hair. Some months later I found out I was pregnant. I remember taking a dollar test arguing with kyle over it being positive and him saying it wasn't. I went running over the granny jeans where she lit up and said OH THATS POSITIVE. Then a few months later we found out it was a little girl. We were happy and so was jean. She said she wanted her to be brown eyed and brown hair. I gave granny jean the right to picking out her name. She went with Kaylee rennae so her and kaydan could have the same initials. When Kaylee was born jean was there. Little was anyone expecting another red head. Jean loved her and kaydan so much. living a couple houses over gave us more opportunity to seeing her and boy didn't we always. Kaydan always getting bubble gum from her. After she passed, kaylees eyes finally turned brown. Jean I know had a grin on that one. Now I had my last child and Kaylin is here. Brown with a red tint hair and blue eyes. Jean would have been tickled pink over her. I will always tell my kids about granny jean because she loved them so very much. And we all love her very much. Until we meet again granny jean I love you so very much <3

“ Nicki said everything I am feeling..Aunt Jean has been good to me from the time I was born. She never had a harse word to say to me and loved me unconditionally. I will miss everything about her but most important is the love she had for her family. Through the laughter, tears, fights, and hugs her #1 priority was those she loved. We can all remember the sacrifices she made throughout her life for us all. I will remember all of the fond memories from my childhood especially the beach trips every year with her, Mama, Todd, Uncle Robert, and myself. Those were always so much fun. When she and Mama were together, there was no telling what would happen. haha. So as I say goodbye for just a little while, I will remember her with great love and know that some sweet day we will reunite and I can thank her again for all she taught me. I love you Aunt Jean.

“ Timmy, Kim and Todd...I am so sorry for your loss. Austin & Blake...my heart breaks for you both. Aunt Jean loved you all so much. She was an awesome Aunt and was our link to our mom after we lost her. We cried alot with her in the last few years over stories and memories...but we can rejoice in the fact that she cries no more. We will miss her so much here but she is in Heaven waiting for us to join her when our time on earth is done. That reality alone should make us smile. Remember the good times, stick together as a family and be there for one another. God will help you all through this...seek him! I love you all. Please call us if you need us for anything.
