“ I got reacquainted with Jean (my Dad was Jean’s first cousin) thru her youngest sister, Deborah Sue. The verbal updates where of a beautiful lady that loved life...family and her savior. Jean is at peace now, no more suffering, no more pain...I find peace knowing I (we) have another angel watching over us. May she rest in peace. God bless the family.

My dear sister, I was thinking last night of all the times we have had together. She took me to the beach and saw Alabama when they played at the Bowery. I spent my summer vacations at her house growing up, her children were like my sisters , I could write a book on things with just me and her. She knew I loved her and will miss her. Sending prayers to Bev and the kids because she was their glue. But they have wonderful memories and her memory will live on through them and her grandchildren
