

Jeannette Parra

September 12, 1950 - July 5, 2024

Jeannette Key Parra, 73, wife of the late Alan Lewis Parra, passed away July 5, 2024, at her home following a courageous battle with declining health. A native of Greenville County, South Carolina, daughter of the late Walter Key, Jr. and Alice Helen Mosca Key, she was a retired customer service representative for Wal-Mart; a breast cancer survivor, and of the Church of God faith. Jeanette was the most honest, sweet and open-hearted woman to everyone who met her. She loved her family, grandkids and great grandkids. She and her husband, Alan, enjoyed visiting the Myrtle Beach, playing bingo; spending time with their great grandkids during their retirement; and sitting on their front porch.

Surviving are two daughters, Cheree Renee Parra and Stephanie Elaine Mawby both of the home; three sisters, Jeannine Green (James) of Greenville, South Carolina, Janice Arnold (David) of Gray Court, South Carolina and Delores Mabe (John) of Duncan, South Carolina; four grandchildren, Kayla Baker (Taylor), Kristan Patterson, Alayna Mawby (Austin Williams), and Jacob Granade (Lacy); and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Parra was predeceased by two brothers, Walter Butch Key, III and Thomas Staples; and one sister, Glenda Joyce Medford.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

The family will be at the home.

Her twin sister Jeannine would like to extend a special thanks to Cheree, Stephanie, and Tonya for their loving care of Jeannette.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.