“ I was sorry to hear about Dutch and my thoughts and prayers are with his family. Although I was unable to be around him often I did enjoy hearing about other members of my family--when Dutch told his stories. I do remember having a good time on the occasions that the Turks got together, when I was young, they were always so happy and enjoyed life.##imported-begin##Larry Turk##imported-end##

“ I knew Dutch through Trenholm Road Methodist Church in Columbia and the Greater Columbia Chamber of Commerce. I was fortunate to attend one of his seminars on public speaking. I remember his saying "You will never be criticized for your speech being too short." I have followed that advice, and have yet to be criticized." (For too short a speech or benediction, that is.) Loved him.##imported-begin##Frank Murphey##imported-end##
