“ Dear Amy,
I know that word's are not enough at such a time like this, however I feel that I must say something to express how sorry I am for your loss. I know that your heart is hurting, because mine certainly is. Your Jeff was a wonderful, kind, giving, funny, and caring young man and my Jeff misses him so much! He will always be remembered and hold a very special place in our hearts.##imported-begin##Kim Ballenger##imported-end##

I was unable to attend the funeral because I was out of town, but I wanted to tell you how sorry I am that you have this incredible loss in your life. “ I attended a beautiful but ugly service saturday, Ugly because we all had to go there.

I can't imagine how you feel right now, but after knowing Jeff for such a short period of time, his death hit me like I never would imagine! He was the always smiling, always friendly kind of person that the world needs a lot more of these days. His demeanor reminded me of my dad's, & I was only hit harder by my dad's death 6 years ago. I hope they cross paths in Heaven & have resolved to do more to make sure I go there in the end.

God bless you, and may your pain turn to joy that you had such a great son in the first place!##imported-begin##bill gerwig##imported-end##

“ On October 10, 2006 the Lord took a very dear and sweet life. Jeffrey was such a sweet and loving person. He loved his family and friends dearly. Although he is not longer here on Earth, he is always in our hearts and in our memories. He had one of those smiles that would light up a room. Whenever you were down, he always found a way to make you smile. Jeffrey will be greatly missed, but there will be one day when we are all reunited. Jeff and Kim, my thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of the family. May God comfort you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Charity Brewer##imported-end##

“ I knew Jeff as a young boy hanging-out with the Little German Band, when his grandparents, Jim and Ann Walker, were playing. He was always sweet and bright and fun to have around. He came to hear us in Walhalla, SC a few years ago, all grown-up and still a delightful person. I'm so sorry to hear of his loss. May you find comfort in your memories of this fine young man, taken from us too soon.##imported-begin##Connie Varner##imported-end##
