“ Dear Brown family,
I am sorry to hear about your recent loss. I send my deepest sympathies to the family.
When we lose a beloved family member or close friend, we wonder where we can receive comfort. The Bible can help us in this regard. The scripture at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4 describes God as being the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort. So God can give us the comfort we need to endure any trial that comes our way. The Bible holds out a wonderful hope for those who have died. It promises us that those who are in God's memory will be resurrected.(John 5:28-29). isn't this comforting to know? One day we will have the prospect of being reunited with our dear loved ones again.
When Jesus was here on the earth, he showed that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his good friend Lazarus.(John 11:11-44). On another occasion, he resurrected the only son of a widow.(Luke 7:11-17). These miracles assure us that Almighty God and his son Jesus will do the same for our dead loved ones.
So during this very difficult time, I encourage you to draw close to God in prayer and he promises to sustain you.(James 4:8)(Psalms 55:22).
In your spare time please also read: Revelation 21:3-4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19.

Sincerely,
