“ Jerry and Cathy, you have our deepest sympathy. Our hearts go out to you, as we lost a son and we know what you are going through. But you know Mary lost Jesus at 34 years old. And she had to watch him be tortured and beaten. We hope you will come back and visit us again in our CIRCLE OF FRIENDS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS at Mt. Creek Baptist Church. Cathy, it has been hard on you, after losing your mom, being sick, and losing your child. We have 3 families in our S.S. Class who has lost children. It is tough. But God is always there for us. We will continue to pray for you and your lovely family.

“ I was one of his teachers at Blue Ridge High School, Julie Faulk. I am deeply touched by Jerry's passing. But, so very proud of his serve to our country! Life cannot be measured in how much time we have here, but in what we do with that time. Jerry accomplished that life goal. His picture in his uniform made me smile with pride. What a fine young man, a hero!

Be brave as Jerry was and take comfort that this separation is only temporary. Jerry is with God and will be waiting for us!

God bless you. May he give you strength and comfort, always.

Love to you, all

“ Please accept our most heart felt sympathy and Christian love to your family at the loss of your precious loved one. We lost "our Marine" almost five years ago, LCPL Joshua D. Speer, Marietta, SC, in an auto accident. We will pray for your family in the days ahead. You'll never get "over it", but by the grace of God you can get "through it". He's there for you. In Christian love, John & Shirley

“ I am not sure how to put this, so please forgive me if it dose not sound the way I truely mean. LCpl Mosteller Jr., Jerry L. was a outstanding Marine and a stand up guy, Jerry Jr. was the type of man that could brighten a room with a few jokes or jesters. He always worked hard and made it fun at the same time. I have only known LCpl Mosteller since Sep of 2007 but during the time I've known him, he was fun to be around. LCpl Jerry L. Mosteller Jr. will be greatly missed.

Respectfully and Sincerely,
