“ Jill was my cousin and the tons of memories that I have of us growing up and playing around our grandmother Bessie's house are priceless. Jill was a few years older than me, so she was always watching out for me and caring for me. We had some great times at Aunt Velma's house too especially in the big inground, swimming pool in the back yard. I loved her so much wish I could have stayed in touch more through the years. I visited her and she knew me and remembered things that I talked about. And I'll never forget the joy and the smiles on her face as I reminisced about our childhood. I also talked to her about heaven, and her face would light up and then that beautiful smile. Love and prayers to all of her family that loved her so much. She has a new body now and is young again like in my memories.

So sorry to hear this. Jill and I graduated together in 1969. I enjoyed knowing her and lots of laughs together. I miss all my classmates but still remember them. May God give you peace and understanding. You are in my prayers.
