“ Had not seen BR in years and years , but I know his daughter , Karen . We became reacquainted a couple of years ago at a Shrine function . I have known the Fleming family most or all of my life . BR was friends with my aunt and my uncles many years ago . His sister , Marie was best friends with my Aunt Carolyn Metcalf Neely in high school . BR's girls , Debbie & Karen rode the bus to school with me and my sister . Anyway , I will be prayerful for the Fleming family tonight . I'm sorry and I love you all . By the way , my mama was Agnes Metcalf Hawkins. Donna Hope Newman

I am saying this for my mother, br called her rusty and I am kim. Until today the 20th we have not known where he went. We checked with neighbors and online. My mom had just come to his house a couple of days and .was going to stay with him. It seems very odd but we could not find anyones number and I tried searching online. We just want to say how very much br was loved by my mother as well as all of us. He was truly family and is missed very much. We hope u are doing best u can karen. So sorry for all the loss u have been through. You will be in our prayers
