“ Andrea, feels like I should be calling you Ms. Coggins or Mrs. Rollins. I sure do hate seeing that your mama passed away. 😭 I'm so sorry!

You were one of the BEST no doubt teacher! I remember our special times of you taking me to get ice cream at Tabs and then to K-Mart. I still have the Limo replica car you gave me. I love ya dearly and so sad for your loss. 😭

I remember you having our class over for a cookout and swimming at your parents. Been like 30 plus years ago! I REMEMBER! You always had wonderful, kind, caring parents and it certainly shown through you! You have always been thoughtful, loving, caring and kind to your students! That's a product of your raising.

I'm again so sorry! 😭😭 Wish I'd known sooner so I could've came to support you today and remember her.

“ Aunt Joann was such a sweet lady. I have many fond memories of her when I was growing up.

I had lost touch with her after my grandmother (her sister) and my mom passed away. I would run into her from time to time. It was always a great pleasure to see her.

Love to all the family. Praying for you all! 🙏❤️
