“ Dear Joanne, I express my sincere sympathy to you and your family , I am so saddened over the loss of Joe. I will always remember his kind, caring heart. He always went the extra mile in everything he did for people and was the true definition of walking the walk. I know his passing is a tremendous loss in your lives. May it help to know how many lives Joe touched with his own magic. I know he touched mine.

“ Dear Joann,
May the Lord be so very close to you during this time of separation and sorrow. Every wife's journey is different, but only Christ can bring the comfort and peace needed to adjust to a new way of life. Joe was a faithful Christian and he will be greatly missed at GFBC. Our husbands are healthy now and enjoying Heaven. We sorrow for ourselves but rejoice knowing we will join them in God's timing. I love you, my friend, and pray for your Comfort.
