“ I am just now seeing that Mr John had passed. I am so sorry to hear about this, but I am rejoicing know that he is at peace. The last time I saw him, he told me he knew he was leaving this life soon, and that he was so ready because that meant he would get to be with Wes again.

*Sending love to you,
Donovan and your grands this Christmas*

“ Sorry for your loss. I'm praying for the entire family.

John was always so friendly and supported our family and our children. I hate we lost touch over the years but always connected on Facebook.

I know Tyler and Wesley welcomed him into heaven with a warm hug.

Joyce, I wished I could have been at the service. I'm sure it was beautiful. What I remember about John was spending a day with him learning how he handled claims as I was about to go into Lumber's claims dept.

John was so gracious that day and he could have said no when you asked if he'd help me. It's lways so hard to give up a loved one but watching him suffer no doubt it was easier.... knowing he is now well and kicking high! I will be praying for you and the family for peace and comfort as you go on with this life without him. I'm so sure there was a great reunion when he entered heaven's gates and was welcomed not only by Wesley but others who have gone on before and was able to worship the one he served, his Savior. Love you, sweet lady!
