

John French "Jack" Knight, II

March 22, 1951 - November 16, 2011

John "Jack" French Knight II, 60, of Greenville, SC received ultimate healing on November 16, 2011 at 10:30am.

Jack was surrounded by his family and entered peacefully into Christ's arms with his race fully won.

He was fiercely in love with and loved by his wife and confidant, Ginny, his sons and their families: Matthew with children Jack and Charlotte; Michael with wife, Cassie, and children Harrison, Emilee and Caleb; Mark with wife, Casey, and son Luke; John with wife, Amanda, and children Ava and Leeland; his large extended family and his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Jack's favorite songs detail the message he would like to deliver to everyone: Amazing Grace, My Chains Are Gone: My chains are gone. I've been set free. In Christ Alone: In Christ Alone, my Hope is found.

Come To Jesus: Weak and wounded sinner lost and left to die, raise your head, Love is passing by. Come to Jesus.

All of his amazing stories that everyone loves so much came from his love for all of the people in his life.

Jack was predeceased by his father and mother, John F. and Norma Shoemaker Knight.

In addition to his immediate family, Jack is survived by his brother Joe Nicolazzo, sisters Mary Ann Bigham, Marta Foley, Patricia Soberdash and Melanie Keller.
