Glen and I are so sorry to hear of Johnny's passing. I know your hearts are broken. Johnny was a very kind and honest man. As an insurance agent, he was always dedicated to the people he served. He cared and that made all the difference. He will be missed by all that knew him. This world needs more men like Johnny Gilbert. Love and prayers for all of you.

“ Judy and Family, my sincere condolences in the passing of your dear Johnny. He was so helpful to so many people over the years, even my aunts. He was a true southern gentleman, with Christian faith and empathy in his work, with love from so many people. He is now in a new body pain-free and whole rejoicing with family gone on before him. May God's grace, love and peace, surround you during this most difficult time. God bless each of you 🙏 With my love and prayers, Linda Coggins Roberts
