“ I would just like to say that I am sorry for your loss. I can't say that I know how you feel, because I don't. I know that it hurts to lose a friend. But I don't know how it feels to lose a sister, a daughter, or a cousin. But I do know how it feels to lose someone that you deeply love and that you deeply care about. I have lost several friends. The cause of them being gone was none of their faults. They we're just innocent bystanders. It hurts to lose someone but knowing that they will always be in your hearts and that their legacy will live on forever will help you get through it. I promise. I will be praying for your family.

Sorry,

Heather Banks

“ Dear Mark, Kristin, & family:

Your loss is felt here in PA. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you in this time of sorrow.

We may not know why God allows these things to happen...but rest assured that Jolie now knows the answer to "the why" and I'm sure she is happy to serve Him.

Love,
