“ Rhonda, my condolences to you and your family. It saddened me to hear of Jody's passing. Jody was one of the best Ops Managers I had at Walmart. Jody was also my Mentor for many years, I even communicated with him a couple of times after we all departed ways. I am thankful for all the knowledge he shared with me, every conversation, and the "figure it out, come back and see if I agree" statements. He helped me build my knowledge, and my analytical and critical thinking skills in transportation. Many of these things I continue to carry with me through my career. Most importantly, he allowed me to do my job freely and entrusted me as a "go-to" for our weekend family. Jody had a heart for giving, no matter the cause. Halloween is the holiday that stands out the most, he always brought items to ensure the kids would be safe while out trick-or-treating. Jody will be missed by many!
