“ The very first time when I met Josh was his birthday. I think he was 5 but not sure of his age. I remember Josh W and my son Josh B wanting to ride the same little trike so Kathy and I had teach them to love and share. Well that worked out for a little while. I loved both Josh's very much. These 2 young men went home to be the Lord. We don't always know why but in my heart God took them home to be with Him. Now Josh W is home with his mom (Kathy) and his great-grandmother Ms Catherine. I will surely miss him. Love and prayers to the family and one day we will see him.
