“ Diane cared for others and loved everyone she met. Her laughter was infectious and she could talk a blue streak. Her love and faith in God was tremendous and she was such an optimist. I know she is in His loving and healing arms and is feeling no more sorrow and no more pain. Love you Diane - Rest In Peace my friend!

“ Diane you have always been one of the most special and genuine people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing, I am going to miss you so much my "cat loving" sister. You held my hand through good and bad and always had a hug waiting for me when I needed it the most. I Love You sister, sleep in peace.

“ Diane and I were FB friends for a number of years. She was so proud of her children, grandchildren and spoke of them often. She loved their visits and also loved her furry friend Nibbles. I will miss our chats that we had which became less after her surgeries. Rest in peace Diane. You will be missed. Love Michele. xxx
