“ Dearest Dennis and Tim Harvey,

My sincere sympathy for your loss as well as mine.

Your mother and father were very dear to me, and made a great impression on my life.

In their young marriage, they showed me what true love and marriage should be like.

With their endearment of "bunch" to each other, which I have never forgot and know that you two have heard on numerous occasions. Spending nights with them when young was always so much fun.

During your grieving, please remember that your parents are happy together with their loved ones, and hopefully we will all join them someday.

If I can help you in any way, please contact me.

With love,
