“ You have been a constant presence in my life and the lives of my children for 20 years. Through those years we have shared accomplishments, tears, many changes, and our lives. It is bittersweet that you won't be with us anymore. I'm so glad you are not in pain, but I will miss you so much. I remember calling you when my babies were sick and didn't know what to do, every single time I needed your recipes I loved because I never wrote them down, and when the girls were driving me crazy and I wanted them to drive you crazy instead. I remember living with you, and you running my lunch out to the porch yelling for me every single day because I forgot it. Thank you for keeping up with me for all these years. I know you are with God, but if you could keep sneaking me advice now and then I'd appreciate it. I love you and goodbye... until we meet again.
