“ We were so sorry to hear of Mrs. Rogers' passing. We were her next door neighbors for 7 years and enjoyed getting to know her. She often stopped by with a box of doughnuts for our children. We're praying for her family.

“ I spent many hours at the Rogers' home when I was growing up. Most of the time us boys stayed out of trouble. But in the times that required a bit of discipline, Mrs Rogers applied in a stern way, but with a gentle spirit. I knew I had done wrong, and knew not to do it again. Both she and Dr Joe showed what a true Christian is and how to live out one's faith. I am blessed for having known both of them as well as the entire family.

“ Juanita and Joe raised such a wonderful family, and the Greer community has shared in the good works and in the losses of this great family. I have many years of memories of all of the Rogers family, from First Baptist Church to the Belmont Heights pool, to doctor and dentist visits. Peace and blessings to you.
