“ Judy and I were in an adult Sunday School class at Duncan First Baptist Church years ago. She was always so sweet and upbeat. We used to say she was the "card lady" because she always sent the most wonderful cards to class members to remember them. She will be missed.

“ Judy was truly one of a kind. She was my cousin and we grew up in Lyman about 3 houses apart. She was a loyal friend and was always there with a caring heart. Even though we ended up living in different towns we were able to keep in touch by email and facebook. I will miss her very much. I love you Judy and sure we had not postponed our lunch.
